At a Meeting of the Democratic Republican ward committee of the Seventeenth ward, held at the heuse of James Saundors, No. 39? Twelfth street, on Tureday evening, August 10, the following resolutions were adopted unanimously—

Resolved. That the recent vote of the General Committee, by which, for the first time, the democrate of the several wards of this city are deprived of the power of appointing their own inspectors of primary elections, and by which a secret caucus of the General Committee have arrogated and exercised the power to make such appointment, is a winked, designing and un heard of it vasion of the usages of the democratic party, and of the privileges of democrate.

Resolved, That the dectrine premulgated by the leading it strement in this net of tyanny and oppression, that a ward has no right, without the previous assent of the General Committee, to appoint Inspectors, is anti-republican, anbversive of the rights and interests of democrate and early paralleid under the monarchical governments of Europe. In opposition to this doctrine, we assert that the General Committee are not the masters but the servants of the democracy of this city, and ought to be responsible to that democracy of this city, and ought to be responsible to that democracy.

Resolved, That we believe this violation of right and
